

KK Elves & Tinsel is proud to host the IllumiPro Training & Certification Program — a hands-on training experience designed for holiday lighting professionals, business owners, and installation crews looking to improve craftsmanship, safety practices, and business growth.

At KK Elves & Tinsel, we believe professional training should be both high-quality and accessible. Our program pricing is designed to remain competitive within the industry while delivering hands-on instruction, real-world experience, valuable business insight, and professional-level education. We are committed to providing strong value for attendees by combining practical field training, safety education, operational guidance, and certification opportunities into one comprehensive learning experience.
